

5 April 1961

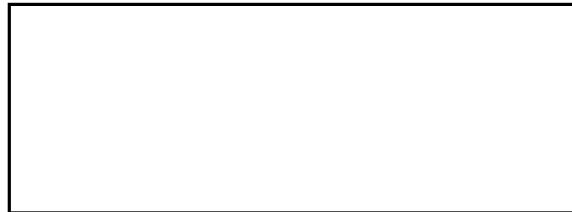

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT : Request for CIA Official as Guest Speaker

1. This confirms my conversation with [redacted] and 25X1A of his willingness to speak on the subject "CIA and the U.S. Intelligence Community" to the Legal-Intelligence Reserve Unit, U.S. Coast Guard, on Monday, 17 April 1961 at 2000 hours in Room 4211, Coast Guard Headquarters, 13th and "E" Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C.

2. The Reserve Unit, of which I am the training officer, meets regularly each Monday night. It has an enrollment of 25 officers commanded by Captain E. R. Feidler, USCGR, a former assistant General Counsel, Treasury Department and now Administrator, National Gallery of Art. Captain Feidler has been selected recently for promotion to the rank of Rear Admiral. The majority of the reserve officers hold the rank of Commander. Six officers of the Unit have recently been selected for promotion to the rank of Captain.
All members have legal intelligence designations, and all have Coast Guard security clearance through secret. [redacted] talk and the 25X1A question period would be classified secret.

25X1A 3. [redacted] has been briefed on the circumstances incident to his presentation.
